

17TH ANNUAL MCAPD ADJUNCT CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 5, 2024

8:30 AM—3:30 PM

CARROLL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

A Brave New World: Teaching and Thriving in an Era of Rapid Change

Call for Proposals

PROPOSAL SUBMISSION DEADLINE: May 15, 2024

Join your colleagues in beautiful Carroll County on the campus of Carroll Community College for the 17th annual MCAPD Conference.

MCAPD is seeking proposals that address this year's theme of "A Brave New World: Teaching and Thriving in an Era of Rapid Change." The higher education landscape is evolving quickly, and educators must learn to navigate uncharted territory. How do we overcome trepidation and learn to embrace change?

Share your insights, creativity, and expertise by submitting a proposal that addresses the conference theme through one of the breakout session themes listed to the right. All breakout sessions are in workshop format and should include an interactive component with clear learning objectives. Workshops are 50 minutes in length.

This popular conference celebrates the adjunct faculty member, but welcomes part-time and full-time faculty (credit and non-credit), faculty development professionals, graduate students interested in teaching, and administrators.

Registration fees*:

- ◆ Regular (before October 1st): $75
- ◆ Late (October 1—5): $85

Breakout Session Themes

- Innovation in the Classroom
- Best Practices in Generative AI
- Diversity, Inclusion, Equity, and Belonging: Promoting Social Justice
- Engaging Today's Student (including dual-enrolled, military/veterans, neuro-diverse, multigenerational, etc.)
- Supporting Health and Wellness in Higher Education

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: DR. RHIANNA C. ROGERS

"Empowering Education: Integrating Innovations for 21st Century Learners"

Join us as we explore the intersection of education and technology, focusing on groundbreaking innovations in the classroom, best practices in generative AI, and the imperative of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB) for social justice. Discover strategies for engaging 21st-century learners effectively while prioritizing their health and wellness in Higher Ed settings. Don't miss this opportunity to shape the future of education through innovation and compassion.

Dr. Rogers is the Chief Diversity Equity Inclusion and Accessibility (DEIA) Officer at the U.S. Department of the Treasury, where she leads the implementation of the department's DEIA strategy and policies. Prior to her work at the Treasury, Rogers was the Director of the Center to Advance Racial Equity Policy and Senior Policy Researcher at the RAND Corporation.
